

We will create all list UIs from a base ListActivity. This is mostly for convenience in implementation.

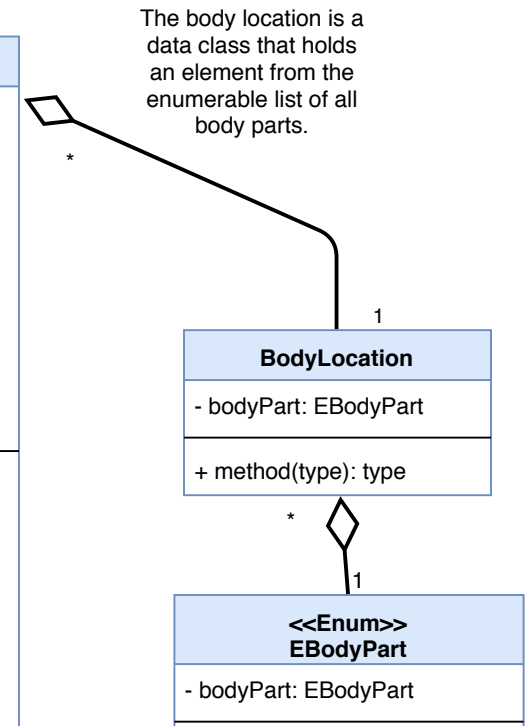

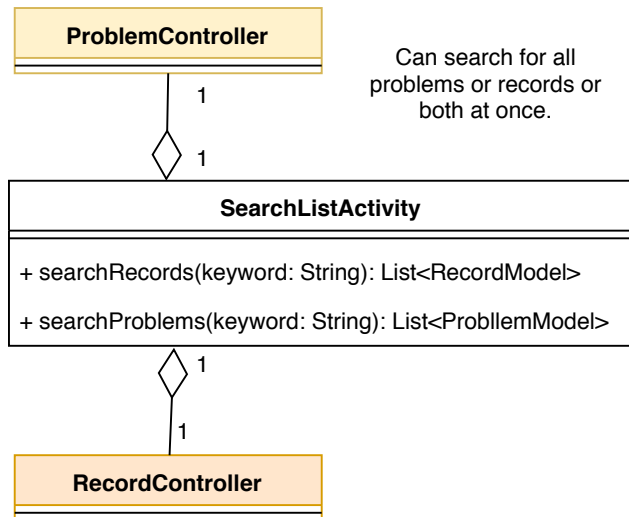

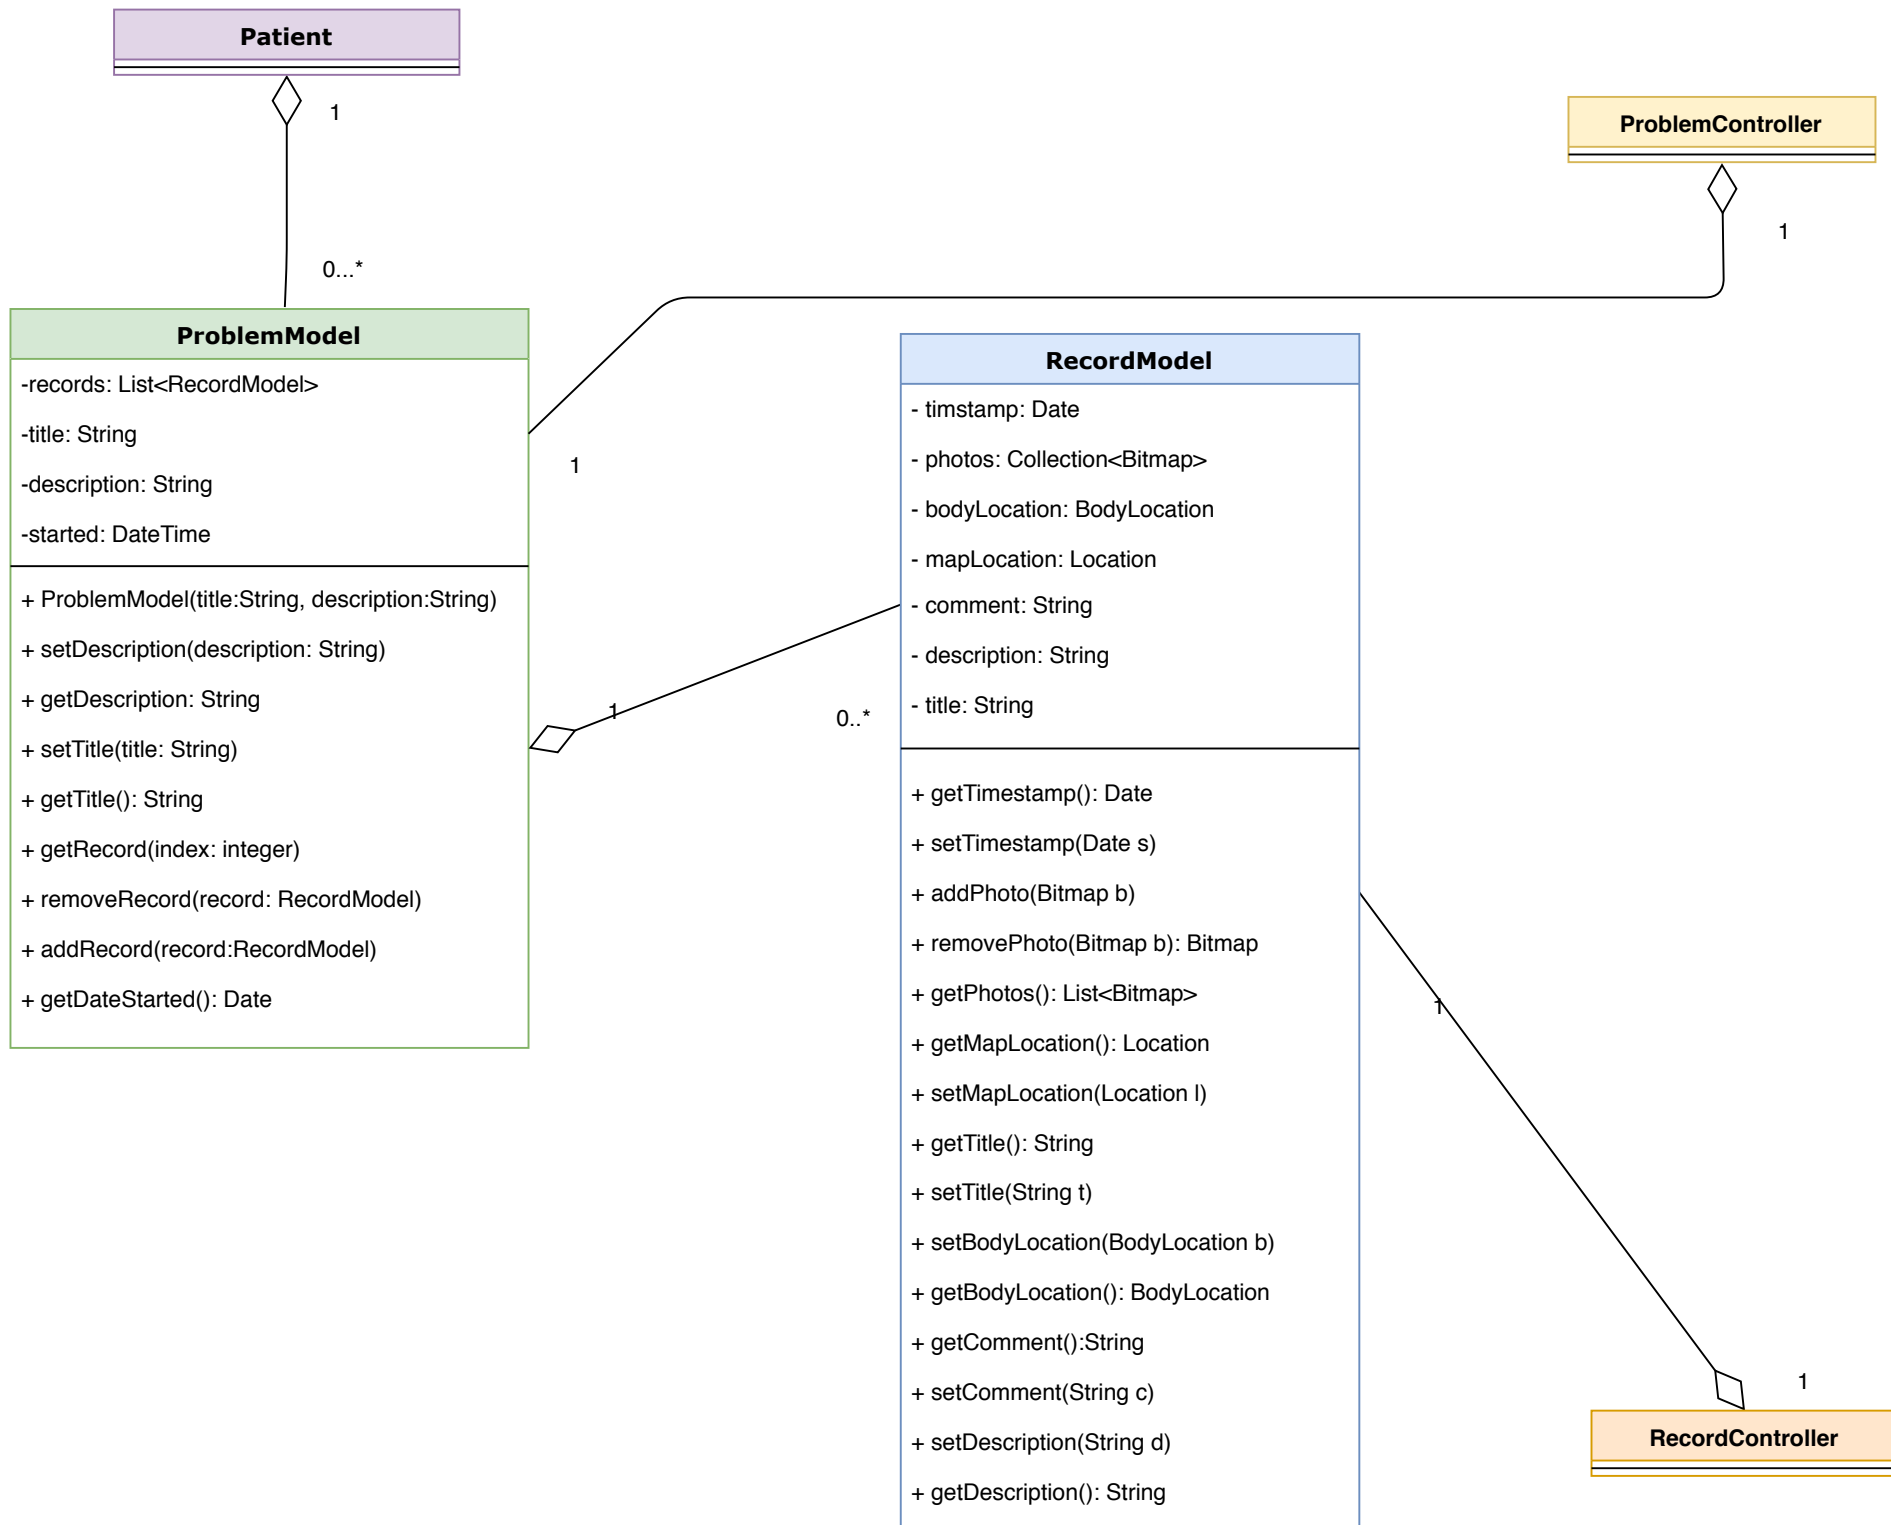

This is a general utility class that will aid in saving/reading data from the disk or the ElasticSearch node.

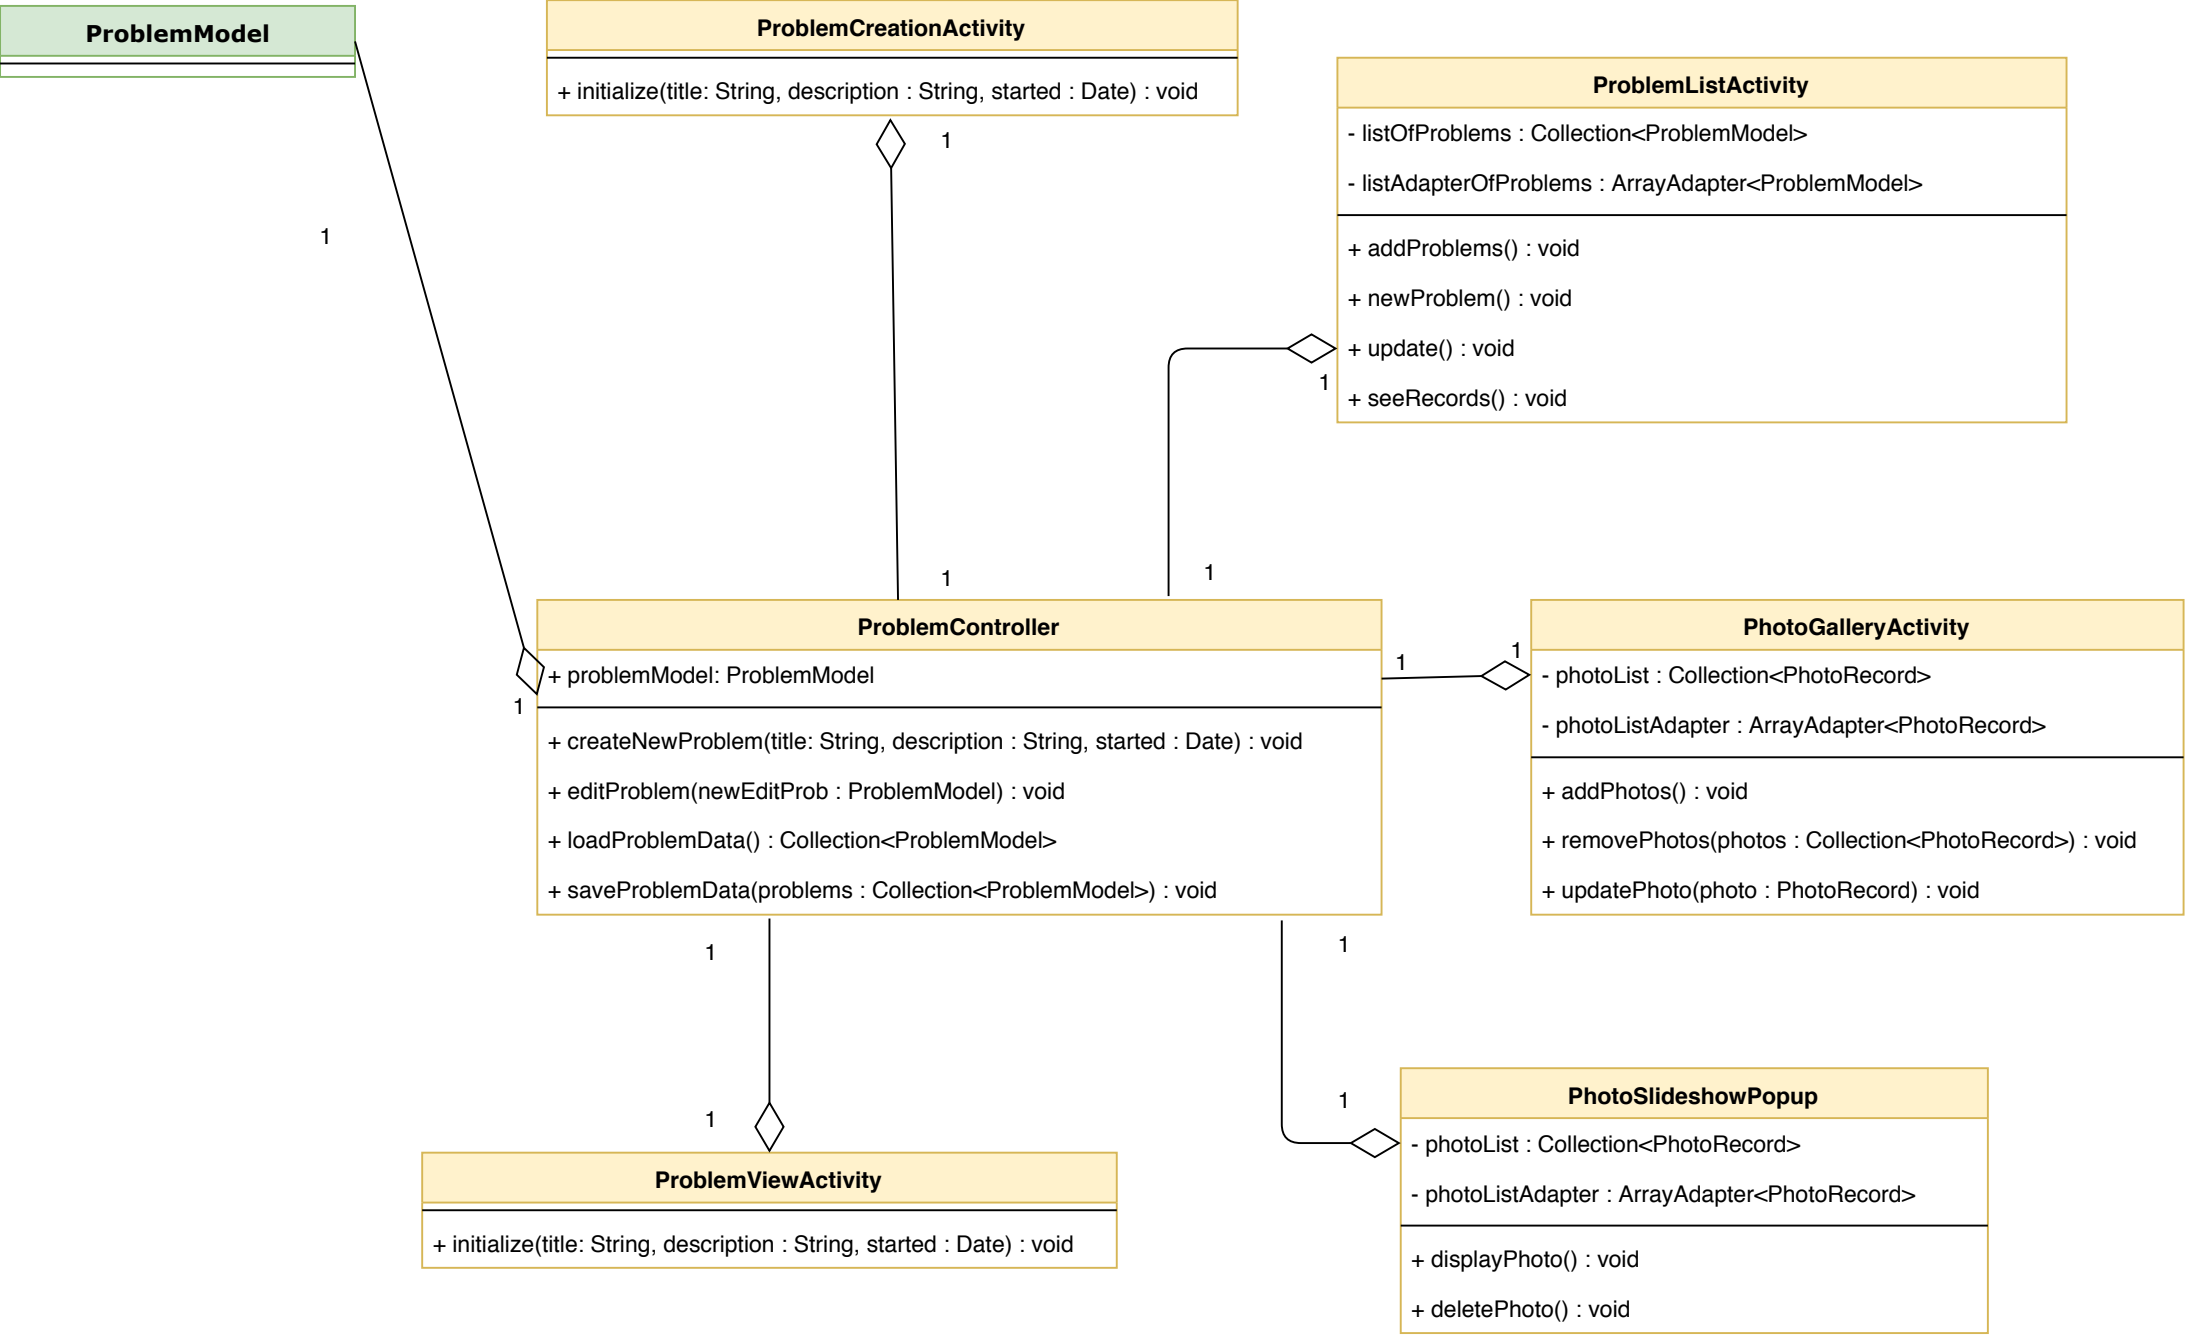

The account activity displays the list of patients for care providers and a list of care providers for patients.

+ getDescription(): String

